CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

These guidelines are applicable to the Executive and Delegates of the Federation.

1. DEFINITION

Conflict of Interest - Any situation where any member of the Executive or any Delegate promotes an interest which results or appears to result in the following:

- i) an interference with the objective exercise of their responsibilities with the Federation.
- ii) a personal gain or advantage by virtue of their position with the Federation.

2. POLICY

a) Depending on the nature of a person's responsibility, it may be necessary, in some cases, to restrict their activities to ensure that a conflict of interest does not, or does not appear to, exist.

b) Any matter involving what is, or may appear to be, a conflict of interest will be referred to the Executive for determination and resolution.

c) Executive members or Delegates may not accept any gift, service or payment from a third party which could be interpreted as compensation for services rendered through their position with the Federation. Gifts may be accepted in the following circumstances:

- i) the normal exchange between friends;
- ii) the normal exchange of hospitality between persons doing business together; or
- iii) tokens exchanged as part of protocol.

3. PROCEDURE

- a) Any Executive member or Delegate who perceives that a conflict of interest exists, or has the potential to develop due to their position, will disclose the nature and extent of their involvement to the President of the Federation. If the President perceives that a conflict of interest exists, or has the potential to develop due to his/her position, they will disclose the nature and extent of their involvement to the Vice President of the Federation

b) The disclosure will be made:

i) immediately after they become aware of a private or personal interest in a matter which is being considered;

ii) immediately after they become aware of a private or personal interest in an existing matter;

iii) immediately after a person who has a private or personal interest in a matter becomes an Executive member or Delegate.

c) All Executive members and Delegates will be required to acknowledge their awareness of this policy and state any real or potential conflicts of interest.

4. RESOLUTION

If a conflict of interest, or violation of this policy occurs, one of the following actions will result:

a) the President, acting on behalf of the Board, will, in writing, disqualify the person from further participation in Federation meetings or all other Federation business;

b) the person's resignation is accepted;

c) evidence is accepted that the person has removed himself/herself from the outside situation causing the conflict.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION POLICY

A Dispute Resolution Policy is available on the Bowling Federation website for the use and benefit of the Member Organizations.
