c) The final tournament will have the bowlers seeded according to their standing after three 8 game blocks.

d) If a member of the Tournament Women's or Mens Team is unable to attend the MBAC National Championships, the team members will move up accordingly and the following criteria, in this order, will be used to fill any vacant positions:

- f) If a bowler has not participated in the MBAS qualifying tournaments for five consecutive years, the following procedures will be used to calculate their average for the first 8 games bowled:
 - a) For the first 8 games bowled the bowler will use a composite average of all games bowled in a league at the end of the previous year bowling season, including leagues in which a bowler has subbed (subs must have played at least 12 games before average can be used).

b) For the first 8 games bowled, if a bowler has not bowled in a league the previous year, and is bowling in a league in the current year, the bowler's average will be based on the composite average of the first 12 games bowled in all leagues of the current year.

c) For the first 8 games, if a bowler has not bowled in any leagues in the previous year and is not bowling in the current year, the bowler will use the average of 160 for women and 180 for men.

Averages for the second 8 game block will be determined by using 50% of their league average from the first 8 game block and 50% of their tournament average from their first 8 game block.

Averages for the third 8 game block will be determined by using their tournament pinfall from the first two 8 game blocks divided by 16.

Averages for the fourth 8 game block will be determined by using their tournament pinfall from the first three 8 game blocks divided by 24.

Thereafter, the bowler's average will be calculated by using only the last 32 games bowled and thereby dropping any previous 8 game blocks.

g) A bowler's tournament average for four 8 game blocks, not including the first four 8 game blocks bowled, may not drop more than 10 between one 8 game block and the next in any given bowling year. If so, the average is to be adjusted accordingly.

4. SENIOR DIVISION TEAMS

a) To qualify for the Senior Division, the bowler must be 50 years of age on or before December 31st of the current bowling season.

In the event of a tie for the 5th POA position, the person with the highest POA for all four 8 game blocks will be the winner of the 5th position. If there is still a tie, a one game POA roll-off will be used to determine the winner of the 5th position.

e) If a member of the Senior Team is unable to attend the MBAC National Championships, the team members will move up accordingly and the following criteria, in this order, will be used to fill any vacant positions:

- i) the man/woman with the next highest POA in the Senior Division who has bowled three 8 game blocks;
- ii) In the event of a tie in i) above, look to their POA for four 8 game blocks;
- iii) if there are no men/women in the Senior Division meeting the criteria in i) or ii) above, the position will be awarded to the man/woman with the next highest POA in the Teaching Division who has bowled three 8 game blocks and is 50 years of age on or before December 31st of the current bowling season;
- iv) if there are no men/women in the Teaching Division meeting the criteria in i), ii) or iii) above, the position will be awarded to the man/woman with the next highest scratch pinfall in the Tournament Division who has bowled three 8 game blocks and is 50 years of age on or before December 31st of the current bowling season;

c) For the first 8 games, if a bowler has not bowled in any leagues in the previous year and is not bowling in the current year, the bowler will use the average of 160 for women and 180 for men.

Averages for the second 8 game block will be determined by using 50% of their league average from the first 8 game block and 50% of their tournament average from their first 8 game block.

Averages for the third 8 game block will be determined by using their tournament pinfall from the first two 8 game blocks divided by 16.

Averages for the fourth 8 game block will be determined by using their tournament pinfall from the first three 8 game blocks divided by 24.
